About PACT: Helping Children with Special Needs

PACT's mission is to promote the development of young children with special needs, and their families, through specialized child care, early intervention services, family support services, parent education, counseling and professional training.

Through ongoing staff training and continuous interactions with other providers, PACT keeps abreast of the latest techniques for helping children with complex needs. PACT has taken a leadership role in the field by designing and implementing programs not available anywhere else in the Baltimore area.

PACT was established in 1981 as a private, nonprofit organization and became an affiliate of Kennedy Krieger Institute in 1998. PACT retains its own 501(c)(3) status, has a separate board of directors, and is responsible for securing funding for its programs.

“It still hurts for me to think about being homeless. The one good thing was that my children were at the Therapeutic Nursery. The staff members brightened up my children’s day and were there to listen to my problems. I will always look back on our experience at the nursery with great warmth.”
