

Kodem Kol at Kennedy Krieger Institute: Early Intervention Service Coordination

Do you have concerns about your child's development?

Kodem Kol provides early intervention service coordination for infants, toddlers and their families who live in Baltimore City's Orthodox Jewish community and are eligible for early intervention services.

If you are a resident of Baltimore City and part of the Orthodox Jewish community, Kodem Kol can provide your children under 3 years old with a FREE evaluation in your home, at your day care or at any of our locations.

Funding for Kodem Kol is provided by the Baltimore City Infants and Toddlers Program.

To make an appointment, please call 667-205-4047. For more information, visit: KennedyKrieger.org/Kodem-Kol

Call for a FREE developmental evaluation, for children under age 3, of the following skills:

- Gross motor
- Social/emotional
- Self-help
- Fine motor
- Cognitive
- Communication

Kodem Kol is an affiliate of the Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities (MCDD). MCDD is one of a national network of University Centers for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD) federally funded by the Administration on Developmental Disabilities. We are committed to helping people with developmental disabilities maximize their potential and enjoy success in community life.
